

Licensing terms

THIS AGREEMENT COVERS ALL USE OF FONTS FROM ERREA. BY USING, ACCESSING, INSTALLING, OR PURCHASING A LICENSE FOR THE FONTS, YOU AGREED TO ALL OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

The company size of the client is the metric you need to know in order to license fonts.

You don't have to gather any information about their number of computers, web traffic, app downloads...

The License can allow one third party like a graphic designer to use the fonts on their behalf. It is the ultimate client (and not the design studio) who holds the license. That also means that if a graphic designer needs the typefaces to work for that client, the client's license can be used.

If the number of employees the Licensee has increases, the license needs to be upgraded. Please get in touch with Errea.

We offer just one type of commercial licence:

the company size of the client is the metric you need to know in order to license fonts. It covers every type of device, use, font file format...

— You can install the typeface on as many computers as you need.

— You can use the typography for any medium: print, digital, branding...

— You can use the typography without any subscription, with a single payment.

TRIAL FONTS

With a trial fonts license, you can use the fonts for the purpose of deciding whether you want to purchase a license for them. You can also use them on your non-commercial, non-monetized social media posts as long as you mention the fonts and tag @SomosErrea.

STUDENTS

Students can use the typefaces at a discounted rate by sending an email to alberto@somoserrea.es

MODIFICATION OF FONTS

The fonts cannot be decompiled, modified, reverse-engineered, reformatted or converted into different formats.

WARRANTIES

Please contact ERREA if the fonts are not working like you expect them to. The fonts are provided as is and might be a work in progress, but ERREA will do their best to fix any bugs.

If the Licensee or any Licensed User breaches this agreement, then all rights granted by ERREA automatically terminate.

ERREA is not liable for anything bad that happens involving the fonts or the use of the fonts and will never have to pay for consequential, incidental, or special damages, including any lost profits or lost savings. If for some reason an authority like a court or governing body with jurisdiction decides ERREA is liable, then their liability will never be more than the license fee received.
